Philada, Gentlemen:

Yours of 15th at hand.
Sorry the Washington letter is in too bad shape for you — As to the Almanack, I know nothing of its value, please make best offer on it, I presume you have some information respecting it — I wish to sell it for a customer & was referred to you as an authority on values of Americana,

Do you handle old Engravings of American subjects, & what have you to offer in Washington portraits & early American views of Cities & towns!

Yours truly
Faris C. Pitt

Philada, Dear Sirs

Inside I send drawing of size of the Jefferson Miniature, including the frame, which is abt 3/4 in wide — the miniature is in perfect condition and signed Field. On the back is an orifice that once contained a lock of hair, seen through initial TJ cut out of the metal.

Yours truly

Philada Dear Sir

Yours of 18th at hand
I reported your offer of $7.00 for the Almanack but my customer wont accept less than $15.00 — The Jefferson Miniature I am not allowed to send, owner bears risk of transit.

The Engravings mentioned to not interest me

Yours very truly
